

Serving Abandoned and Orphaned Children in Mexico

Since 1966

December 2022

Without education, children cannot face the challenges they encounter."

As the new year approaches, I am grateful for our donors and your generous hearts as we continue to support and highlight education for the homeless children in Mexico.

Quality educators are crucial to the children's circle of care and love, laying the foundation for healthy development and learning. The board members supporting the Casa Hogar Mama Paulita in Limon, Mexico, see education as their primary goal. They have felt that education is so important that they built schools on their property, staffing them with certified teachers, to make sure that each child receives an education.

The older middle school students were also honored for their studies.

Casa Mano in Monterrey

Introducing Gabriela Castillo

I am from Galeana Nuevo León, and my goal is to become a teacher. I'm 21 years old. I am studying for a Bachelor of Education in the Philosophy and Letters of the UANL, where my training helps me understand the teaching processes, and it has also taught me to apply different learning strategies. Now I am in the 8th semester of my degree, and I should finish my studies in December 2023.

As part of the congregation of the Adonai Temple in Galeana, I have helped as a teacher for children in the summer Vacation Bible Schools. I am part of the praise group and president of the youth group.

I am so grateful for the opportunity to live at Casa Mano as it makes it possible financially to complete my studies.
